

The NCATC session titled “21st-Century Career/Educational Pathways: Industry Credentials, On-the-Job Skill Tracking, Instructor Certification, and Funding Models for Student Success” will be on Thursday January 26, 10:30-11:45 a.m.

Session Description: As designed, this session will be a robust panel of experts who have been successful in connecting the dots and forming real partnerships between community colleges and industry will share their approaches with current examples of moving beyond FTE metrics to JOB metrics. Attendees can expect to interact directly with the panelists during this session.

Confirmed Panelists Include:

- Dr. Gregory J. Hamann, President, Linn-Benton Community College / NC3 Board, OR
- John Hindman, Director, Learning and Performance Improvement, Tooling U-SME, OH
- Mary Ann Pacelli, Manager, Workforce Development at Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP), NIST, DC
- Leo Reddy, Chairman and CEO, Manufacturing Skill Standards Council, VA
- Moderated by: J. Craig McAtee, Executive Director, National Coalition of Advanced Technology Centers, OH

Visit NCATC @ Booth 20